

PRESS RELEASE OF 11 JULY 2017

PERROT DUVAL GROUP SEES PROFITS JUMP BY 50 PER CENT

Automation specialist the Perrot Duval Group (Perrot Duval Holding S.A.) generated a profit after taxes of 1.5 million CHF for the 2016/17 financial year (ended on 30 April 2017), up by 50 per cent on the previous year (1.0 million CHF).

Sales rose by 6 per cent, primarily as a result of integrating the company Tecos Bruhin AG (Altnau, Switzerland) into Füll Process group, which specialises in process automation. The Füll Division achieved a positive business performance overall. The group's Infranor investment specialises in the robotisation of machinery and includes the Cybelec Division, a provider of complete solutions in selected niche markets, in particular manufacturers of machinery for sheet-metal bending. Infranor matched the previous year in terms of sales volumes while significantly improving profitability.

Perrot Duval Holding S.A. sold its minority stake in Belwag Ltd., Bern, which mainly focuses on distributing and servicing motor vehicles.

The company will provide final figures, detailed information on the 2016/17 financial year as well as its comments on current business performance together with the presentation of its balance sheet on 24 August 2017.

This press release is available on the company's website and can be downloaded from http://www.perrotduval.com/article.php3?id_article=7.
